

Biathlon Yukon

Code of Conduct and Ethics

Reviewed and approved Biathlon Yukon Board

PURPOSE: The purpose of the code is to provide guidance to Biathlon Yukon coaches, athletes, volunteers and the Board of Directors to ensure a safe and positive environment (within Biathlon Yukon's programs, activities, and events) by making Individuals aware that there is an expectation, at all times, of appropriate behaviour consistent with Biathlon Yukon's core values. Biathlon Yukon supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and fairness.

DEFINITIONS:

The following terms have these meanings in this Code:

"Individuals" – Individuals engaged in activities with, Biathlon Yukon including, but not limited to: athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers, managers, administrators, committee members, parents and guardians, Directors and Officers, and individuals employed by Biathlon Yukon

"Discrimination" – Differential treatment of an individual based on one or more prohibited grounds which include race, citizenship, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, family status, genetic characteristics, or disability.

"Grooming" – Grooming includes, without limitation, deliberate conduct by an Individual to sexualize a relationship with a minor, and which includes making inappropriate behaviour seem normal and gradually engaging in 'boundary violations' which have been professionally-identified to Canadian standards (e.g., a degrading remark, a sexual joke, sexualized physical contact; an adult Individual sharing rooms with a minor who is not an immediate family member; providing a massage or other purported therapeutic interventions with no specific training or expertise; private social media and text communications; sharing personal photographs; shared use of locker rooms; private meetings; private travel; or providing gifts).

"Harassment" – A course of vexatious comment or conduct against an Individual or group, which is known or ought to reasonably be known to be unwelcome. Types of behaviour that constitute Harassment include, but are not limited to:

- a) Written or verbal abuse, threats, or outbursts;
 - b) Persistent unwelcome remarks, jokes, comments, innuendo, or taunts;
- Racial harassment, which is racial slurs, jokes, name calling, or insulting behaviour or terminology that reinforces stereotypes or discounts abilities because of racial or ethnic origin;

- c) Leering or other suggestive or obscene gestures;
- d) Condescending or patronizing behaviour which is intended to undermine self-esteem, diminish performance or adversely affect working conditions;
- e) Practical jokes which endanger a person's safety, or may negatively affect performance;
- f) Hazing, which is any form of conduct which exhibits any potentially humiliating, degrading, abusive, or dangerous activity expected of a junior-ranking individual by a more senior individual, which does not contribute to either individual's positive development, but is required to be accepted as part of a team or group, regardless of the junior-ranking individual's willingness to participate. This includes, but is not limited to, any activity, no matter how traditional or seemingly benign, that sets apart or alienates any teammate or group member based on class, number of years on the team or with the group, or ability;
- g) Unwanted physical contact including, but not limited to, touching, petting, pinching, or kissing;
- h) Deliberately excluding or socially isolating a person from a group or team;
- i) Persistent sexual flirtations, advances, requests, or invitations;
- j) Physical or sexual assault;
- k) Behaviours such as those described above that are not directed towards a specific person or group but have the same effect of creating a negative or hostile environment; and
- l) Retaliation or threats of retaliation against a person who reports harassment to Biathlon Yukon.

“Sexual Harassment” – A course of vexatious comment or conduct against an Individual because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, where the course of comment or conduct is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome; or making a sexual solicitation or advance where the person making the solicitation or advance is in a position to confer, grant or deny a benefit or advance to the Individual and the person knows or ought reasonably to know that the solicitation or advance is unwelcome.

Types of behaviour that constitute Sexual Harassment include, but are not limited to:

- a) Sexist jokes;
- b) Threats, punishment, or denial of a benefit for refusing a sexual advance;
- c) Offering a benefit in exchange for a sexual favour;
- d) Demanding hugs;
- e) Bragging about sexual ability;
- f) Leering (persistent sexual staring);
- g) Sexual assault;
- h) Display of sexually offensive material;
- i) Distributing sexually explicit messages or attachments such as pictures or video files;
- j) Sexually degrading words used to describe an Individual;

- k) Unwelcome inquiries into or comments about an Individual's gender identity or physical appearance;
- l) Inquiries or comments about an Individual's sex life;
- m) Persistent, unwanted attention after a consensual relationship ends;
- n) Persistent unwelcome sexual flirtations, advances, or propositions; and
- o) Persistent unwanted contact.

APPLICATION OF THIS CODE

- 1) This Code applies to Individuals' conduct during Biathlon Yukon's business, activities, and events including, but not limited to, competitions, practices, tryouts, training camps, travel associated with Biathlon Yukon's activities, Biathlon Yukon's office environment, and any meetings.
- 2) An Individual who violates this Code may be subject to sanctions pursuant to Biathlon Yukon's Discipline and Complaints Policy. In addition to facing possible sanction pursuant to Biathlon Yukon's Discipline and Complaints Policy, an Individual who violates this Code during a competition may be ejected from the competition or the playing area, the official may delay the competition until the Individual complies with the ejection, and the Individual may be subject to any additional discipline associated with the competition.
- 3) An employee of Biathlon Yukon found to have engaged in acts of violence or harassment against any other employee, worker, contractor, member, customer, supplier, client or other third party during business hours, or at any event of Biathlon Yukon, will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action subject to the terms of Biathlon Yukon's procedures for human resources well as the employee's Employment Agreement (if applicable).
- 4) This Code also applies to Individuals' conduct outside of Biathlon Yukon's business, activities, and events when such conduct adversely affects relationships within Biathlon Yukon (and its work and sport environment) and is detrimental to the image and reputation of Biathlon Yukon. Such applicability will be determined by Biathlon Yukon at its sole discretion.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Individuals have a responsibility to:

- a) Maintain and enhance the dignity and self-esteem of Biathlon Yukon's members and other individuals by:
 - i. Treating each other with the highest standards of respect and integrity;
 - ii. Focusing comments or criticism appropriately and avoiding public criticism of athletes, coaches, officials, organizers, volunteers, employees, or members;
 - iii. Consistently demonstrating the spirit of sportsmanship, sport leadership, and ethical conduct;

- iv. Acting, when appropriate, to correct or prevent practices that are unjustly discriminatory;

- b) Refrain from any behaviour that constitutes Harassment, Sexual Harassment, Grooming, or Discrimination
 - c) Abstain from the non-medical use of drugs or the use of performance-enhancing drugs or methods. More specifically, Biathlon Yukon adopts and adheres to the Canadian Anti-Doping Program. Any infraction under this Program shall be considered an infraction of this Code and may be subject to further disciplinary action, and possible sanction, pursuant to Biathlon Yukon's Discipline and Complaints Policy. Biathlon Yukon will respect any penalty enacted pursuant to a breach of the Canadian Anti-Doping Program, whether imposed by Biathlon Yukon or any other sport organization
 - d) Refrain from associating with any person for the purpose of coaching, training, competition, instruction, administration, management, athletic development, or supervision of the sport, who has incurred an anti-doping rule violation and is serving a sanction involving a period of ineligibility imposed pursuant to the Canadian Anti-Doping Program and/or the World Anti-Doping Code and recognized by the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport (CCES)
 - e) Refrain from the use of power or authority in an attempt to coerce another person to engage in inappropriate activities
 - f) In the case of minors, not consume alcohol, tobacco, or cannabis at any competition or event;
 - g) In the case of adults, not consume cannabis in any situation associated with Biathlon Yukon's events (subject to any requirements for accommodation), not consume alcohol during competitions and in situations where minors are present, and take reasonable steps to manage the responsible consumption of alcohol in adult-oriented social situations associated with Biathlon Yukon's events
 - h) Respect the property of others and not wilfully cause damage
 - i) Promote the sport in the most constructive and positive manner possible
 - j) When driving a vehicle with an Individual:
 - i. Not have his or her license suspended
 - ii. Not be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs or substances
 - iii. Have valid car insurance
 - iv. Not use a mobile device with his or her hands
 - k) Adhere to all federal, territorial, municipal and host country laws
 - l) Refrain from engaging in deliberate cheating which is intended to manipulate the outcome of a competition and/or not offer or receive any bribe which is intended to manipulate the outcome of a competition
 - m) Comply, at all times, with Biathlon Yukon's bylaws, policies, procedures, and rules and regulations, as adopted and amended from time to time
 - n) Report any ongoing criminal investigation, conviction, or existing bail conditions involving an Individual to Biathlon Yukon, including, but not limited to, those for violence, child pornography, or possession, use, or sale of any illegal substance or performance-enhancing drug

DIRECTORS, COMMITTEE MEMBERS AND STAFF

In addition to the Responsibilities Section (as outlined above), Biathlon Yukon's Directors, Committee Members, and Staff will have additional responsibilities to:

- a) Function primarily as a Director or Committee Member or Staff Member of Biathlon Yukon; not as a member of any other group or constituency
- b) Act with honesty and integrity and conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the nature and responsibilities of Biathlon Yukon's business and the maintenance of Individuals' confidence
- c) Ensure that Biathlon Yukon's financial affairs are conducted in a responsible and transparent manner with due regard for all fiduciary responsibilities
- d) Conduct themselves transparently, professionally, lawfully and in good faith in the best interests of Biathlon Yukon
- e) Be independent, impartial, and not be influenced by self-interest, outside pressure, expectation of reward, or fear of criticism
- f) Behave with decorum appropriate to both circumstance and position
- g) Keep informed about Biathlon Yukon's activities, the sport community, and general trends in the sectors in which it operates
- h) Exercise the degree of care, diligence, and skill required in the performance of their duties pursuant to the laws under which Biathlon Yukon is incorporated
- i) Respect the confidentiality appropriate to issues of a sensitive nature
- j) Respect the decisions of the majority and resign if unable to do so
- k) Commit the time to attend meetings and be diligent in preparation for, and participation in, discussions at such meetings
- l) Have a thorough knowledge and understanding of all Biathlon Yukon's governing documents
- m) Conform to the By-laws and policies approved by Biathlon Yukon

COACHES

In addition to the Responsibilities Section (as outlined above), coaches have many additional responsibilities. The coach-athlete relationship is a privileged one and plays a critical role in the personal, sport, and athletic development of the athlete. Coaches must understand and respect the inherent power imbalance that exists in this relationship and must be extremely careful not to abuse it, consciously or unconsciously. Coaches will:

- a) Ensure a safe environment by selecting activities and establishing controls that are suitable for the age, experience, ability, and fitness level of the involved athletes
- b) Prepare athletes systematically and progressively, using appropriate time frames and monitoring physical and psychological adjustments while refraining from using training methods or techniques that may harm athletes
- c) Avoid compromising the present and future health of athletes by communicating and cooperating with sport medicine professionals in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of athletes' medical and psychological treatments

- d) Support the coaching staff of a training camp, territorial team, or national team; should an athlete qualify for participation with one of these programs
- e) Accept and promote athletes' personal goals and refer athletes to other coaches and sports specialists as appropriate
- f) Provide athletes (and the parents/guardians of minor athletes) with the information necessary to be involved in the decisions that affect the athlete
- g) Act in the best interest of the athlete's development as a whole person
- h) Comply with Biathlon Yukon's policies for screening, when applicable
- i) Report to Biathlon Yukon any ongoing criminal investigation, conviction, or existing bail conditions, including those for violence, child pornography, or possession, use, or sale of any illegal substance
- j) Under no circumstances provide, promote, or condone the use of drugs (other than properly prescribed medications) or performance-enhancing substances and, in the case of minors, alcohol, cannabis, and/or tobacco
- k) Respect athletes playing with other teams and, in dealings with them, not encroach upon topics or actions which are deemed to be within the realm of 'coaching', unless after first receiving approval from the coaches who are responsible for the athletes
- l) Not engage in a sexual relationship with an athlete under the age of majority
- m) Disclose any sexual or intimate relationship with an athlete over the age of majority to Biathlon Yukon
- n) Recognize the power inherent in the position of coach and respect and promote the rights of all participants in sport. This is accomplished by establishing and following procedures for confidentiality (right to privacy), informed participation, and fair and reasonable treatment. Coaches have a special responsibility to respect and promote the rights of participants who are in a vulnerable or dependent position and less able to protect their own rights
- o) Dress professionally, neatly, and inoffensively
- p) Use inoffensive language, taking into account the audience being addressed

ATHLETES

In addition to the Responsibilities Section (as referenced above), athletes will have additional responsibilities to:

- a) Report any medical problems in a timely fashion, when such problems may limit their ability to travel, practice, or compete
- b) Participate and appear on-time and prepared to participate to their best abilities in all competitions, practices, training sessions, tryouts, tournaments, and events
- c) Properly represent themselves and not attempt to participate in a competition for which they are not eligible by reason of age, classification, or other reason
- d) Adhere to Biathlon Yukon's rules and requirements regarding clothing and equipment
- e) Act in a sportsmanlike manner and not display appearances of violence, foul language, or gestures to other athletes, officials, coaches, or spectators
- f) Dress to represent the sport and themselves well and with professionalism
- g) Act in accordance with Biathlon Yukon's policies and procedures and, when applicable, additional rules as outlined by coaches or team officials

- h) When at training camps and competitions and/or when staying at a hotel or other accommodation:
 - i. Adhere to curfews set by their coaches
 - ii. Attend official functions
 - iii. Be dressed as designated by their coaches
 - iv. Open the door to the room whenever visiting another athlete
 - v. Ensure that all group activities take place in a common room
 - vi. Recognize that accommodation areas designated for female athletes are out of bounds for male athletes and vice versa
 - vii. Abide by the International Biathlon Union competition rules as well as any modifications made by the host organization/club
 - viii. Handle rifles in a safe manner and according to the International Biathlon Union competition rules and to the safety practices established by Biathlon Canada, Biathlon Yukon and the host organization/club
 - ix. Understand that they are financially responsible for any equipment loaned to them by other athletes, coaches, Biathlon Canada, Biathlon Yukon or the host organization/club

OFFICIALS

In addition to the Responsibilities Section (as referenced above), officials will have additional responsibilities to:

- a) Maintain and update their knowledge of the rules and rules changes
- b) Work within the boundaries of their position's description while supporting the work of other officials
- c) Act as an ambassador of Biathlon Yukon by agreeing to enforce and abide by national and territorial rules and regulations
- d) Take ownership of actions and decisions made while officiating
- e) Respect the rights, dignity, and worth of all Individuals
- f) Not publicly criticize other officials or any club or association
- g) Act openly, impartially, professionally, lawfully, and in good faith
- h) Be fair, equitable, considerate, independent, honest, and impartial in all dealings with others
- i) Respect the confidentiality required by issues of a sensitive nature, which may include disqualifications, discipline processes, appeals, and specific information or data about Individuals
- j) Honour all assignments unless unable to do so by virtue of illness or personal emergency, and in these cases inform the assignor or association at the earliest possible time
- k) When writing reports, set out the actual facts
- l) Dress in proper attire for officiating

PARENTS/GUARDIANS AND SPECTATORS

In addition to the Responsibilities Section (as referenced above), parents/guardians and spectators at events will:

- b) Encourage athletes to compete within the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence
- c) Condemn the use of violence in any form
- d) Never ridicule a participant for making a mistake during a performance or practice
- e) Provide positive comments that motivate and encourage participants' continued effort
- f) Respect the decisions and judgments of officials, and encourage athletes to do the same
- g) Never question an official's or staff member's judgment or honesty
- h) Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse, coercion, intimidation, and sarcasm
- i) Respect and show appreciation to all competitors, and to the coaches, officials and other volunteers
- j) Not harass competitors, coaches, officials, parents/guardians, or other spectators

TEAMS

Teams that consist of Individuals will:

- a) Recognize that team websites, blogs and social media accounts may be seen as extensions of Biathlon Yukon and must reflect Biathlon Yukon's mission, vision and values;
- b) Ensure that all athletes and coaches participating in sanctioned competitions and events of Biathlon Yukon are registered and in good standing;
- c) Ensure that any possible or actual misconduct is investigated promptly and thoroughly;
- d) Impose appropriate disciplinary or corrective measures when misconduct has been substantiated, regardless of the position or authority of the offender;
- e) Advise Biathlon Yukon immediately of any situation where a complainant has publicized a complaint in the media
